ARCHANGELS DON'T PLAY PINBALL

San Diego State University School of Theatre, Television, and Film is proud to present the play that catapulted Dario Fo to international fame in the late fifties. A 'vintage' Dario Fo play from his 'bourgeois period' this classical farce is both ironically funny and soberingly true to life. Archangels Don't Play Pinball tells the story of Tiny, just a guy trying to straighten out his life who is caught in bureaucratic chaos that has labeled him as a dog. A series of hilarious misadventures ensues that become ever more manic and unexpected.

Fo says Archangels Don't Play Pinball "is about the madness of man and the madness of bureaucracy." The Pulitzer Prize committee praised Dario Fo as a playwright that "emulates the jesters of the Middle Ages in scourging authority and upholding the dignity of the downtrodden. With a blend of laughter and gravity he opens our eyes to abuses and injustices in society and also the wider historical perspectives in which they can be placed."

Come laugh and open your eyes to Dario Fo. Archangels opens in the Experimental Theatre on Friday, November 17 at 8 p.m. and closes December 3. Evening performances will take place November 17, 18, 29, 30, and December 1 and 2 at 8 p.m. Matinees will be performed on November 19 and December 3 at 2p.m. For tickets call (619) 594-6884, buy online at theatre.sdsu.edu, or visit the Performing Arts Box office Tuesday through Friday between 11a.m. – 2 p.m. For group discounts, call Charlie at (619) 594-6365 or email OnStageatSDSU@sdsu.edu.
