The Greatest Story Never Told!

San Diego State University School of Theatre, Television, and Film is proud to present the 2006-2007 season's second musical, In The Beginning. Let there be laughter! The first five books of the Old Testament get a good-natured ribbing in this hysterical tribute to all of those ordinary, everyday people who didn't make it into the Bible.

Unremarkable though they may be, these hardy Biblical bystanders somehow survive calamity after calamity in outrageous fashion, inventing some useful and practical devices along the way (including the Life Saver – the candy, that is), escaping enslavement in ancient Egypt and helping a young man named Cain find his redemption.

“In The Beginning” features a riotous book by David Hahn and a clever, high-spirited score by Maury Yeston, the Tony Award-winning composer/lyricist of “Nine,” “Phantom,” “Grand Hotel” and “Titanic.” Filled with one-liners and hilarious situations galore, “In The Beginning” is a non-denominational crowd-pleaser for the religious, the irreligious and anyone who just wants to have a good time!

Don't miss any of San Diego State's exciting season. In The Beginning opens in the Experimental Theatre on Friday, February 16 at 8 p.m. and closes February 25. Evening performances will take place February 16, 17, 21, 22, 23 & 24 at 8 p.m. Matinees will be performed on February 18 & 25 at 2 p.m. For tickets call (619) 594-6884, buy online at theatre.sdsu.edu, or visit the Performing Arts Box office Tuesday through Friday between 11 a.m.- 2 p.m. For group discounts, call Charlie at (619)594-6365 or email OnStageatSDSU@sdsu.edu.
