SDSU Theatre, a non-profit corporation

“...a haunting theatrical dreamscape.” – The New York Times

San Diego State University School of Theatre, Television, and Film is excited to present Hotel Cassiopeia in the Don Powell Theatre. With a multi-cultural cast, film and art Hotel Cassiopeia is sure to be a multimedia extravaganza.

Hotel Cassiopeia is a memory play inspired by Joseph Cornell’s life and art. Joseph Cornell worked in his basement creating magical collage boxes. Odd bits of maps, jewelry, dolls, miniatures, flotsam and jetsam of all kinds populate these wildly magnificent creations celebrated throughout the art world. Like Cornell’s boxes, Hotel Cassiopeia is the “articulation of the moments that make a life worth living”.

Hotel Cassiopeia will open in the Don Powell Theatre on Friday November 21 at 8 p.m. and will close December 7 at 2 p.m. Evening performances on November 21, 22 and December 4, 5, 6 at 8 p.m. with matinees performances on November 22 and December 7 at 2 p.m. For group discounts call (619) 594-6365 or email OnStageSDSU@sdsu.edu. For tickets and information visit the Performing Arts Box office Tuesday through Friday between 11 a.m.- 2 p.m., call (619) 594-6884 or buy online at theatre.sdsu.edu.
